

May Empowerment Series

CELEBRATE Community Action Month

In partnership with the Social Security Administration, STOP Inc. is excited to offer a Financial Empowerment Series to aid in answering your questions regarding Social Security benefits and how you can apply for them on the New Online portal. All classes are FREE and open to the public. Contact: Monique Harrell for more information.

✓ Social Security Updates during COVID and Identity Theft, Elder Abuse, & Scams: Protecting yourself

Monday, May 2, 2022 6:30 PM (Virtual)

Learn about the services that are offered through Social Security as well as to calculate, your social security earnings, protect your information, and avoid Social Security Scams. Additionally, learn how identity theft occurs, how to spot a scam and avoid financial exploitation.

✓ Social Security for people with Disabilities: Working While Disabled - How Social Security Can Help (Part B)

Wednesday, May 11, 2022 6:30 PM (Virtual)

Learn about the application process and how to use your online account. What is SSI and how to qualify? What should you report? Learn about other programs available through Social Security.

✓ Social Security for people with Disabilities: Everything you wanted to know about SSI and SSDI (Part A)

Monday, May 9, 2022 6:30 PM (Virtual)

Learn about the application process and how to use your online account. What is SSI and how to qualify? What should you report? Learn about other programs available through Social Security.

✓ Retirement 101: How and when do I get it?

Thursday, May 26, 2022 6:30 PM (Virtual)

When are you eligible to receive benefits? How does early retirement affect your benefits? Do you qualify for disability, survivors, and spousal benefits? When should you file for Medicare?

Register
Here

<https://rb.gy/qbhfgw>

🏠 Contact: Monique Harrell
5700 Thurston Ave, STE 101,
Virginia Beach, VA 23455

☎ 252-862-3455
✉ mharrell@stopinc.org